West Palm Beach, Florida-based EDGE Distributors Group Member Electronics Source Moves Into Larger Warehouse / Office Facility

San Leandro, CA – November 20, 2006 – The EDGE Distributors Group -- a rapidly growing service-oriented group of 14 independently owned regional distributors catering primarily to custom install and residential systems integrators -- today announced that charter member Electronics Source, a leading southeast consumer electronics distributor specializing in high-end audio and video electronics, has moved into a larger West Palm Beach, Florida facility.

"Located only a few doors from our existing facility, the new space boasts over 11,400 square feet in which to operate from, affording us significantly more warehouse and administrative office room," says Electronics Source principal and EDGE Distributors Group President, Mike Hench.

"Additionally, we have a large product showroom along with a separate demonstration & training facility capable of accommodating 50 people. This is exciting for both Electronics Source and our manufacturer partners, as we plan to host many factory trainings and dealer events beginning early 2007," furthered Hench.

According to Hench, Electronics Source plans to begin conducting business from the new facility by December 11, 2006.

Electronics Source's new showroom and training facility address is located at 2361 Vista Parkway, Suite 14 / West Palm Beach, FL 33411.

Electronics Source's phone and fax numbers remain the same: Toll-free Phone: 877.885.1732 / Local area phone: 561.687.7737 / Fax: 561.615.4560
